GUIDANCE NOTES FOR REGISTRATIONS OF A NEW DOG OR PUPPY

Where a dog has never been registered as a Pedigree dog or as an Activity dog a name should be chosen using the following guidance.

This will be the registered name and may or may not be the same as the pet name used daily.

- The name must be at least two words and may not be longer than 24 letters including the breeders affix if applicable. An affix may be granted to a breeder, on application, and is reserved for their sole use when naming dogs. It is not necessary to have an affix to register a litter.
- Alternative names should be given in case unacceptable names (usually accidental use of an affix) are disallowed, the Registrar may select from this list in the order without contact with the applicant.
- Names may not be re-used within 15 years by a dog of the same breed. Although this may be used as part or in conjunction with other names or an affix to make the selected name unique.
- No names recorded in the UK Stud Book may be re-used within the same breed.
- Names must not conflict with another persons recognised affix. The KCJ respects and maintains any affix also held in Guernsey or the UK.
- You may not include the Surname of the Applicant.
- Single Letters shall not start the name.
- Initials cannot be used and abbreviations may be disallowed.
- Numbers in figures may not be used, when written may be used except when used to indicate a sequence.
- Punctuation marks may be rejected.
- Canine terms may not be used. Such as dog, bitch, kennel, Crufts, champion etc or the name of a breed
- An Affix may be used when registering a dog if the breeder has one, this must be the first word in the name
- It is not possible to change the name of a dog after registration, except for the addition of an affix
- Names that appear in the pedigree of the Sire or Dam are discouraged as they may cause confusion and may not be accepted by the registrar.
- Offensive or inappropriate names will be refused, and the Registrar may choose a more suitable name
- The Registrar reserves the right, on behalf of Committee, to withhold, revoke or suspend any registration

 Please complete form and enclose with entry - the registration fee due to the Kennel Club of Jersey will be paid for by Jersey Agility Club for overseas entrants **
